terms and conditions

Introduction

Not-for-profit community groups, clubs and organisations based in the Shire of Glenelg or City of Warrnambool are welcome to list a profile. Connect does not include for-profit services, commercial business listings or political organisations.

Exceptions may be made where an organisation primarily offers activities / services in the areas of arts, culture, health and / or well-being and is considered by Connect administrators to have a positive impact on the community.

Only groups, clubs and organisations whose activities are deemed non-discriminatory and legal will be listed.

Glenelg Shire Council and/or Warrnambool City Council ("Connect administrators") will decide whether an organisation's profile is listed on Connect in their sole and absolute discretion. Decisions by Connect administrators about whether an organisation's profile is listed on Connect cannot be appealed and organisations do not have a right to apply to have such a decision reviewed.

Terms and Conditions

Disclaimer of liability

In registering with Connect, you assume all responsibility for the use of Connect and the internet generally. Connect administrators and anyone involved in creating or maintaining Connect accept no liability or responsibility for any loss or damage (whether direct or indirect) which results from any use or access of, or any inability to use or access Connect or any linked sites.

Connect administrators have the right to:

1. Edit, refuse, or remove any listing of an organisation's profile on Connect or any links to a website contained in a profile at any time for any reason. Connect administrators may choose to provide an organisation with a reason as to why a profile or any content contained in a profile was edited, rejected or removed from Connect, but are under no obligation to do so.
2. Remove information which, in the opinion of Connect administrators, is political, racist, unlawful, threatening, abusive, indecent, pornographic or defamatory.
3. Modify or discontinue any service offered via www.connectglenelg.com.au or www.connectwarrnambool.com.au at any time for any reason.
4. Provide information contained in any directory, apart from that specifically marked private, in other formats, eg publications and online newsletters. Connect administrators' privacy policies explains how personal information will be collected, used, stored and disclosed. You can view the privacy policies here <http://www.warrnambool.vic.gov.au/sites/warrnambool.vic.gov.au/files/documents/council/policies/Privacy%20Policy%20-%20FINAL%20Nov%202014.pdf>. http://www.glenelg.vic.gov.au/Page/Download.aspx?link=../Files/Council_Privacy_Policy.pdf&size=142053&name=Glenelg%20Shire%20Council%20-%20Privacy%20Policy
5. Amend the Terms and Conditions at the discretion of the Connect administrators at any time. Amendments will take effect immediately upon publication on this website. Your continued use of the website and Connect following such publication will be taken as your acceptance of these terms as amended. We recommend you review these Terms and Conditions regularly.

Connect administrators confirm that:

1. Only groups whose activities are not-for-profit will be published. Connect administrators reserve the right to request proof of not-for-profit status from an organisation.
2. Exceptions may be made where an organisation primarily offers activities / services in the areas of arts, culture, health and / or well-being and is considered by Connect administrators to have a positive impact on the community.
3. Only groups whose activities occur within the Great South Coast region* or have specific relevance to the residents of the Great South Coast region will have their profiles published on Connect.
4. Only groups that engage in non-discriminatory and legal activities will have their profiles published on Connect. Groups will not in any submission made for publication on the Connect website, include any material that breaches any law or regulation in force in Australia, including but not limited to the provisions of the following Acts:
 - the Public Records Act 1973;
 - the Competition and Consumer Act 2010;
 - the Racial Discrimination Act 1975;
 - the Sex Discrimination Act 1984;
 - the Disability Discrimination Act 1992;
 - the Equal Opportunity Act 1995;
 - the Racial and Religious Tolerance Act 2001;
 - the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006; and
 - all other Acts governing discrimination, defamation and vilification in force in any other Australian jurisdiction.
5. Only groups, activities and organisations whose activities are deemed non-political by Connect administrators will have their profiles published on Connect. Political activity is defined as including, but also extending beyond, the support of political parties or of those seeking political office. Supporting or opposing a change to the law or policy is regarded as a political purpose. Attempts to sway public opinion on controversial social issues may also be regarded as political.
6. Any information provided in the community directory registration form not specifically marked private will be made public. It is up to the registration listing owner to ensure any information they wish to remain private is not entered into the public details section of the community directory registration form. Entry of information into the public details section of the community directory registration form amounts to consent for Connect administrators to disclose that information to the public.
7. Any information provided in organisation profiles, including but not limited to skills, interests, equipment and assets is a representation that the listing organisation has all relevant licences, insurance, permits and approvals; and that appropriate security measures are in place to protect the organisation's assets.
8. When providing community support to other organisations and residents through Connect, the duty of care rests with the organisation providing support. Connect administrators, as well as administrators of the website and / or Facebook page accept no liability for any errors, acts or omissions of listing organisations in providing their services.
9. Community listings may remain on the Community Directory for no longer than 12 months before they must be reviewed.
10. Connect administrators do not warrant and cannot ensure the security of information that you provide in registering for Connect, though we will endeavour to protect this information. Listing organisations provide this information at their own risk.
11. Connect administrators do not guarantee the constant availability of Connect or the website, and accept no liability for down time or access failure whatsoever, including due to circumstances beyond our reasonable control (eg. failure by an internet service, telecommunications or other technology provider).
12. These terms will be construed in accordance with and are governed by the laws of Victoria, Australia.

* The Great South Coast region includes the municipalities of Corangamite, Glenelg, Moyne, Southern Grampians and Warrnambool.
